CEV Nations Cup

We kick off the Active City Arena with the Nations Cup taking place over the weekend from May 18th to 20th. This event is a golden opportunity for the German male beach volleyball teams to get an extra chance of earning a ticket for the Olympic Games in Paris. The focus will be on the German teams and they're counting on your support.

Queen & King of the Court

Queen & King of the Court is a new spectacular discipline in beach volleyball and is taking place in Hamburg from May 30th to June 2nd. We are welcoming the best German and International teams who will fight for their crowns in an entertaining Active City Arena!

Do you want to be part of these two International top events?
